Correct the title.

EFFECT: Changes references about a labor organization's general treasury fund to refer to any fund or account where agency shop fees are commingled. Requires labor organizations to provide nonmembers with written notice as to its compliance with the statutory requirements for use of agency shop fees. Written notice must include the text of the statute, an explanation that the individual is receiving the notice because he or she is a nonmember, and a financial accounting of the labor organization for the three previous fiscal years that includes revenue from member dues and agency shop fees and expenditures for chargeable and nonchargeable activities. Included with the written notice must be a card the nonmember can sign and return to the labor organization to obtain a refund of fees not spent on chargeable activities. Removes the emergency clause.
